PRODUCT OVERVIEW

The ChillCore Series CCRR1S27 is a commercial reach-in refrigerator designed for restaurants, cafés, and catering operations that require organized, reliable cold storage. With 19.32 cu. ft. of interior space and a single solid swing door, this freestanding unit offers ample capacity while keeping contents easily accessible and properly chilled.

Equipped with four adjustable shelves and a magnetic door gasket, this commercial reach-in fridge provides flexible organization and optimal cooling. The bottom-mounted compressor with R-290 refrigerant maintains a temperature range of 33°F to 41°F, providing consistent, energy-efficient performance.

This unit runs on 110 V, 60 Hz power with digital temperature controls for precise, hassle-free operation. Made with stainless steel, this unit has compact dimensions of 31.5 (W) × 27 (D) × 82.68 (H) in. that fit smoothly into commercial kitchens. It features four casters that allow easy mobility and lockable stability.

Additional features include a keyed lock for security, LED interior lighting for clear visibility, and auto defrost functionality to minimize ice buildup. The unit is ETL listed and DOE certified for compliance with commercial safety and energy standards. The unit comes with a 1-year warranty included, providing essential coverage for regular commercial use.
