PRODUCT OVERVIEW

The ChillCore Series CCRR48 reach-in heavy duty fridge is designed for commercial kitchens, restaurants, and catering operations that require reliable cold storage. This stainless steel unit offers 36 cu. ft. of storage across two sections with two solid swing doors for organized access.

It features 6 adjustable shelves and a magnetic door gasket to maintain consistent internal temperatures. The unit operates on R-290 refrigerant with a top-mounted compressor and digital temperature control, maintaining a range of 33°F to 41°F. Its auto-defrost system reduces manual maintenance by preventing ice buildup.

This heavy duty fridge runs on a 115 V, 60 Hz power system with 633 W wattage for stable cooling performance. It includes four swivel casters, two with brakes, for easy mobility, and comes with a keyed lock and door alarm for added security.

The unit measures 48.4 in (W) × 31.5 in (D) × 74 in (H), making it suitable for compact kitchen spaces. LED interior lighting improves visibility for quick access to stored items. This commercial refrigerator is ETL Listed, DOE Certified, and comes with a 1-year manufacturer warranty.
