PRODUCT OVERVIEW

The PolarBox Series Walk-In Cooler Box is a durable, made in America unit designed for commercial kitchens and food storage facilities. Constructed from 24-gauge white galvanized steel, it delivers long-lasting strength and corrosion resistance.

Measuring 10 ft (W) × 12 ft (D) × 7 ft (H), this floorless unit allows flexible installation on existing surfaces to suit a variety of layouts. Modular cam-lock and tongue & groove panels provide secure assembly and a tight seal, reducing air gaps for consistent internal temperatures.

4-inch polyurethane insulation with R-28 thermal resistance provides reliable temperature retention, while the solid swing door, featuring a keyed lock and self-closing, flush-mounted design, maintains cooling efficiency during frequent access. CFC- and HFC-free insulation supports environmentally responsible operation.

Certified UL Listed US, NSF Listed, and DOE compliant, this commercial walk-in cooler box meets stringent safety, quality, and energy standards. Hardwired power provides stable operation, and the unit is backed by a 10-year panel warranty and 1-year door parts warranty for dependable long-term performance.
